The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

By the Hawke, Capt. Brown, arrived at New-Caſtle from Cork with Servants; and the Carolina, Capt. Meſnard, from London, we have the following Advices.

GIBRALTAR, December 27.

A FEW Days ago we received an Account, that one of the Dutch 20 Gun Ships on this Station, in a Cruize againſt the Moors, was, by a ſtorm, drove aſhore at a Place called Rio Negron, about 25 Miles to the Eaſtward of Tetuan; Ten of the Crew periſhed, and the Captain, whoſe Name is Steenhurſt, with the reſt of the Crew, about 130, were made Captives by the Moors, and ſent up to Mequinez.

Leghorn, Jan. 15. A French Tartan, juſt arrived from Africa, met, on the very Day of her Departure with Porto Ferina, a Corſair, who was carrying into that Place three Catalan Veſſels. We alſo learn by the ſame Tartan, that there were actually 18 Barbary Ships cruizing at this End of the Streights of Gibraltar, and that they had formed three Squadrons of ſix Ships each, the better to encounter the Spaniards.

Hague, Feb. 4. This being the Day appointed for the Funeral of our late beloved Stadtholder, the moſt Imperial Diſpoſitions are as follow; the Princes and their Supporters, the States General, the Courts of Juſtice, the Magiſtrates and Miniſters of the Hague, are to be in the Appartments allotted for them, by eight a Clock.

The Hague Militia is to be under Arms by Seven a Clock, lining the Streets through which the Proceſſion paſſes, with their Firelocks reſted; the Officers in uniform with black Breeches, Stockings, Buckles and Gloves; a Crape round the Left Arm, and an Orange Cockade.

When the Proceſſion has reached the Wagenbrug, the Princes, Nobility and Members of the ſeveral Colleges are to go into Coaches: When the Corpſe has paſſed the Wagenbrug, the Nobles and Gentlemen who carry Banners, Flags, Enſigns, Trophies, or Inſignia, and who lead Horſes, are to deliver them up, and go into Coaches, all which are to have no more than two Horſes. When the Corpſe comes to the Ryſwick Gate, it is to be received by a Detachment of four Officers, two Subalterns, and eighty Life-Guards, to eſcort it to Delft, and there draw up on each Side of the Gate, whilſt the Proceſſion enters the Town.

Order of the Proceſſion.

A Party under the Court Major, the Dragoon Guards, the Horſe Guards, the Swiſs Guards, the Foot Guards, the Hundred Yeomen of the Guard, all in uniform. All Land and Sea Officers being here, according to their Ranks and Seniority: His Highneſs's Domeſticks, Phyſicians, &c. two Kettle Drums, 12 Trumpets, Wolfgang, Herald at Arms, a led Horſe, with the Arms of Naſſau on Tapeſtry; a Standard with the ſame Arms; fourteen Gentlemen of the Law; his Highneſs's Treaſurer, the Members and Preſident of his Council. A Herald at Arms; a Flag repreſenting naval Power, with this Motto, Je maintiendrai; an Enſign repreſenting military Power, with this Motto, Vindice tuta libertas; a Banner and Guidon, the War Horſe, the great Standard, the Horſe of State; a Banner with his Highneſs's Arms; the four Quarters of his Highneſs's Coat of Arms, viz. of Courland, Anhalt, Heſſe and Naſſau; the Gloves, the Spurs, the Helmet, the Shield, the Sword of War, the Truncheon, the Coat of Armour, the mourning Horſe, the Order of the Garter, the Sword of Sovereignty, the Crown on a black Velvet Cuſhion with Silver Lace, the great Officers of his Highneſs's Houſhold, the Funeral Car, of a particular Invention, covered with Silver-laced black Velvet, and a magnificent Canopy; the eight Horſes of the Car in which the Corpſe is to be placed, led by ſix Majors, and two Lieutenant Colonels; the Pall to be borne by Count Maurice of Naſſau, General Prætorius, the Admirals Schryver and Reynſt; the Corpſe to be carried by twenty-two Majors General and two Commodores, and the Canopy to be ſupported by twenty-three Colonels, the Prince of Baden Durlach, the Duke of Brunſwick; theſe are ſucceeded by eight Meſſengers of State bare headed, and without Cloaks, two Chamber-keepers, four Trumpeters, the Herald of the Generality in a Coat of Arms, the Houſekeeper to the States, the States-General, two and two, in long mourning Cloaks, without Bands or Swords, and followed by their Domeſticks in Livery, eight Meſſengers of State, eight State Uſhers, two Chamber-keepers, the Herald of Holland, the States of Holland and Weſt-Frieſland, eight State Uſhers, the Head Uſher of the Council of State, the Preſident and Counſellors of the great Council of Holland, Zealand, and Weſt Frieſland; the Head Uſher of the Court of Holland, the Preſidents and Counſellors of the Courts of Juſtice of Holland and Weſt Frieſland, the Magiſtracy of Delft, and of the Hague, Miniſters of Delft, and of the Hague. When the Proceſſion is within a fit Diſtance of Delft, the Princes, Noblemen, Gentlemen and Members of the ſeveral Colleges, are to alight and draw up in the ſame Order as at their ſetting out; when the Corpſe enters the Town, there is to be a triple Diſcharge of twenty-one Cannon, the like at its Entrance into the Church, and at its being let down into the Vault, the venerable Repoſitory of a Race of Heroes within cloſes this melancholy Ceremony; then Thanks is to be returned, in the Name of the moſt ſerene Family, to the ſeveral Colleges, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, and the Proceſſion returns hither in the former Order.

Naples, Feb. 1. The building of the ſeveral Men of War with which the King has determined to augment his Navy, is carried on with great Vigour in the ſeveral Docks of this Kingdom, and Yeſterday a Zebeck of of Twenty-four Pieces of Cannon was launched.

Genoa, Feb. 9. The Maſters of ſeveral Ships coming from different Ports of Catalonia ſay, that the Spaniſh Squadron cruizing off Palamos, has entirely cleared thoſe Seas of the Barbary Corſairs, none having lately appeared upon thoſe Coaſts. They add, that ſeveral Men of War, Frigates and Zebecks, are equipping in the Spaniſh Ports, in order to put to Sea in the Spring to act againſt the Algerines.

Warſaw, Feb. 19. Count Raſamouſki, the new Hatman of the Coſſacks, has provided ſo effectually for reſtraining the Hydamacks, that in all Probability we ſhall hear no more of their Depredations. A Thing of equal Conſequence to the Subjects of this Crown, and to that of Ruſſia.

Copenhagen, Feb. 22. The King conſidering that the Navigation of his Subjects in the Mediterranean is not ſecure while he is only in Peace with the Algerines, his Majeſty has reſolved to enter into Treaty alſo with the Regencies of Tunis and Tripoli.

Dreſden, Feb. 20. Peace is at laſt reſtored at Dantzick, by a final Decree of the Royal Commiſſioners, which ſtands the Magiſtrates and the Burghers in about 1,500,000, Florins.

Rochelle, Feb. 15. We have Advice from St. Domingo, that the repeated Earthquakes from the 18th of October to the 8th of December, have in a Manner changed the Face of that Iſland, filled up many Vallies with Earth, turned the Courſe of ſeveral Rivers, and ruined the Sugar Plantations in ſuch a Manner, that a great Part of the Inhabitants have, in a Fit of Deſpair, taken a Reſolution to return to France, from which there is no diſſuading them. Beſides three Men of War that are to eſcort the fourteen Eaſt-India Ships, the Company are determined to ſend three more, with a Body of Troops on board; to enable M. du Pleix to execute his Projects.

Amſterdam, Feb. 26. We learn by Letters from Batavia, that the Dutch have gained two great Advantages over the Rebels at Bantam, and that the Company's Troops are in a full March, in order to oblige them to raiſe the Siege of that Capital.

Hague, Feb. 27. By Letters from Batavia we have Advice, that the Dutch have gained two ſucceſſive Victories over the Bantam Rebels, who were advanced even to the Frontiers of Jacatra. In the laſt Engagement they were totally defeated, and the Dutch Company were in great Hopes that they ſhould be able to raiſe the Siege of Bantam. According to the ſame Advices, the Emperor of Java had promiſed to aſſiſt our Countrymen in putting an End to the War.

Vienna, Feb. 23. They write from Conſtantinople, that the Effects of the laſt dreadful Peſtilence are ſcarce felt in that Metropolis; the Number of the Inhabitants is conſiderably encreaſed, and they reckon that near 200,000 Labourers and Artiſans are come to ſettle there ſince the Contagion ceaſed: So that the Loſs falls on the Provinces of the Ottoman Empire.

Berlin, Feb. 29. A Treaty of Peace is ſaid to be on Foot, between this Court and that of Spain, which in all Likelihood will be greatly facilitated by the Tranſit lately granted thro' the United Provinces for Goods ſent from Germany to Spain.

Paris à la-main, Feb. 28. Letters received from Genoa, of the 14th of this Month adviſe, that the Revolt, which lately happened in the Suburbs of Biſagno, was not yet appeaſed; but that there was ſome Likelihood of Things being brought to an Accommodation; becauſe the People ſhewed Signs of a general Diſcontent, and murmured exceedingly at the Rigour with which they were treated, for doing all they could to deliver the Republick from the Oppreſſion it laboured under.

Letters from Genoa of the 21ſt of laſt Month, adviſe, that by Letters from Baſtia, it appeared, that the Miſunderſtanding between the Marquis de Curſay, the French General, and M. Grimaldi, Commiſſary General of the Republick, was renewed; the latter was the Occaſion of it, having refuſed to deliver up two Deſerters of the King's Troops, and five Banditti, who had been baniſhed from the Iſland of Corſica, not to return upon Pain of Death.

Berlin, Feb. 21. The King has offered a Refuge to great Numbers of Piedmonteſe Families, living by the Silk Trade, who are deſirous of removing into Proteſtant Countries, and will immediately employ them in our Manufactures.

Paris, March 3. Orders are ſent to all the Intendants of the Kingdom to ſend up to Court exact Accounts of the State of the Militia in their reſpective Departments, and to complete forthwith every Battalion of the ſame.

Hamburgh, March 3. The Jew who came to treat with the Court of Denmark about accommodating the Affair which occaſioned the arreſting M. de Longueville, is a very ſenſible Man: He ſays that two Cauſes may be aſſigned for the Diſguſt which was taken againſt M. de Longueville; firſt, becauſe there was counterfeit Jewels in ſome of the Preſents made by his Daniſh Majeſty to the Emperor of Morocco; and ſecondly, becauſe that Officer took too much upon him, in pretending to erect Forts in the Ports of Saffia and St. Croix, though the Contract made with him gave him no ſuch Authority. He ſays likewiſe, that his Power is very extenſive, and that he can do the Danes great Service. The Paſſports which he expected from the King of Denmark being arrived, he ſet out Yeſterday for Copenhagen.

Cadiz, Jan. 28. The dreadful Storms which began in theſe Parts the fifth of the laſt Month, as hath been already related, have continued with more or leſs Violence almoſt every Day ſince: The Damage done thereby is greater than we can exactly compute. Upwards of 100 Ships, large and ſmall, have been loſt on our Coaſts.

Peterſburgh, Feb. 15. The Reſtoration of a good Underſtanding between this Court and that of Berlin, ſeems to be more likely, as both Parties make Advances towards it; It is even pretended, that Things are ſo far advanced in this Reſpect, that nothing is wanting to compleat it, but ſending the reſpective Miniſters. The Court ſeems very well ſatisfied with the Diſpatches ſent from time to time by the Imperial Miniſters at Stockholm, from which there is Reaſon to believe, that the States of that Kingdom will take ſuch Reſolutions as may contribute to ſtrengthen the good Underſtanding between her Imperial Majeſty and the Crown of Sweden.

Florence, Feb. 12. They write from Leghorn, that the Corſairs of Barbary continue to cruize along the Coaſt of Sardinia, and by that Means hinder Communication between Leghorn and other Parts of Italy; inſomuch that no Ship has arrived there for ſome Time paſt, but ſuch as belonged to the Powers reſpected by theſe Corſairs. This has occaſioned a Reſolution of ſending to Sea the three Imperial Ships, in order to take under their Protection the Chriſtian Veſſels that trade to Leghorn.

Cadiz, Feb. 20. Every Method is made Uſe of to recover the Effects of the Superbe Regiſter Ship lately loſt off our Coaſts, and 1400000 Piaſters have been already ſaved. Four other Regiſter Ships are hourly expected from the Weſt-Indies. Letters from the Havanna, dated the 8th of December laſt, adviſe, that the Men of War which were in that Port could not put to Sea for want of Sailors, moſt of thoſe who had been ſent from Old Spain, having fallen ſick, and near 600 of them dead.

Paris, March 6. It is pretended that the Imperial Court has conſented that the King of Sardinia ſhould be admitted as high contracting Party to the Treaty which is negociating at Madrid for eſtabliſhing the Repoſe of Italy, this being one of the Difficulties which hindered the Concluſion of that Treaty.

The Land Forces of the King are said to amount to near 200,000 Men, exclusive of the Militia, all the Regiments being complete.

Brussels, March 9. The Conferences which are to be held in this City for definitively regulating the Affairs of the Barrier, and those of the Tariff, will commence the latter End of April, or Beginning of May.

LONDON,

Jan. 25. Letters from Paris inform us, that a new Memorial has been delivered to the British Commissaries in that City, asserting his most Christian Majesty's Right to the disputed Islands in America, and discovering a fixed Resolution to keep Possession thereof. They also tell us, they have received Advice that the Squadron which sailed from Brest in July, under the Command of Mr. Perrier de Salvert, has been upon the Coast of Guiney; but they don't know whether it has stopped there, or whether it has proceeded to the West-Indies, as was reported some Time ago. They add, that two Ships of the said Squadron have been dispatched to America, one for Martinico, and the other for St. Domingo.

Feb. 20. They write from Venice, that Orders have been issued by the Senate for taking a strict Account of all the Seamen that are in a Condition for Service, in order to their being properly registered, that the Republick may find no Difficulty in putting a Squadren of Men of War to Sea, intended for the Protection of her Subjects Commerce, and to act against the Corsairs of Barbary; but whether this Squadron will join those of Spain and Portugal, or whether there be any Truth in a Report that a grand Confederacy will be made publick in the Spring for very surprizing Purposes, Time alone can inform us with Certainty.

Extract of a Letter from Berne in Switzerland, dated February 10.

"Prince Edward the eldest Son of the Chevalier de St. George, passed through this City Yesterday, attended by one Gentleman and two Servants; he and the Gentleman that accompanied him were both dressed in Blue, turned up with Red, pretty richly trimmed, with Cockades in their Hats. They were known by two French Officers, who happened to be at the Inn where they alighted and took fresh Horses. Their Rout seemed to be for Germany.

Extract of a private Letter from Rochelle, dated February 1, 1752.

"We have at present in our Port five large Vessels, belonging to the East-India Company, very richly laden with the Manufactures of this Kingdom; which, together with four others daily expected, and those five that are at present in the Harbour of Brest, will sail for the East Indies, as soon as Weather will permit, under Convoy of three Men of War stoutly armed. The Presents of his most Christian Majesty to the new King of Golconda are on board the Concord, and consist of the King's Picture richly set with Jewels, five Gold Watches of exquisite Workmanship, one of which requires winding but once a Year, six large Bales of Gold Brocade from Lions, and a Gold Snuff Box, set with eighteen of the finest and largest Brilliants that could be procured."

According to some of the Accounts brought by the Swallow Packet from India, the English and French do not live in a very neighbourly Manner; the former having set up a Flag-staff at a Place not far from Pondicherry, M. Dupleix desired it might be removed, as being upon the French Boundary, as he pretended; and this not being complied with, he ordered it to be beat down with Cannon, which was accordingly done. It is also said, that a Detachment of the Garrison of Pondichery had given due Correction to some of the People called Marattes, for some Insults or Depredations committed by them.

Advices from Madrid say, that the last Dispatches sent from thence to London import, that the Spanish Court is willing to consent that the English shall cut Logwood in the Bay of Campeachy, provided our Vessels keep always within certain Limits to be fixed there; and that the said Court would speedily appoint Commissaries to enquire into the Prizes illegally made by her Guarda de la Costas, which the English estimate at near 100,000 l.——Which Affair, according to Spanish Speed, may possibly be settled in a Year or two.

A Bill is ordered into Parliament for amending an Act of last Sessions for correcting the Kalendar.

Feb. 22. We hear from Lisbon, that a Demand has been made by that Court on the British Merchants resident there, to produce their Books, in order, as it is presumed, to be thereby informed of the Nature and Advantages of that Trade, by knowing what Sums of Money they remit home to England on that Balance. Upon Receipt of this News, the Portugal Merchants here waited on the King with an authentick account of the Affair, when his Majesty was most graciously pleased to promise to consider their Case; and we hear that my Lord Tyrawley will be sent Ambassador on the Occasion.

There are no less than thirty Sail of Ships now fitting out in the River for the Greenland Fishery, the Success of which will be of the greatest advantage to Great-Britain.

Orders are given for preparing the Furniture and Bedding of the Yatchts, for carrying his Majesty to Holland.

The Right Hon. the Lords of the Admiralty have been pleased to order the Hon. Commodore Edgcombe to sail in the Deptford Man of War to Algiers, to relieve Commodore Keppel.

Feb. 25. It is currently reported, that the Lieutenant of a British Man of War at Lisbon, was lately seized by Order of his Portuguese Majesty, and afterwards transported to Brazil, for carrying the current Coin of that Kingdom clandestinely on board the Ship to which he belonged. This smuggling Practice has been long connived at by the Portuguese Ministry, and was generally carried on by the Monks and Friars, whom as Ecclesiasticks, no body is allowed to search.

The Neptune, a new Man of War of 60 Guns, built at Genoa for the Service of his Catholick Majesty, coming from thence for Cadiz; and an English Merchantman, and a Swede, were lost near Cadiz, on the first Inst. N S. in the same Storm that the Superbe, the Spanish Register Ship, was lost; and not one Man belonging to the English Ship or Swede were saved.

His Excellency the Earl of Hyndford's Equipage is getting ready, his Lordship setting out soon for Vienna.

Admiral Knowles, Governor of Jamaica, does not set out for that Place till April next; and Edward Trelawney, Esq; the present Governor, will not set out for England till his Arrival there.

Yesterday there was a very smart Press below Bridge for Sailors, which are to be put on board several Men of War which are lately put into Commission; but where they are destined is not made publick.

We hear that the Quarrel that happened between an Earl's Son and a Lieutenant of the Guards, in which the latter was killed Yesterday, was occasioned by bad Language given at Gaming.

We are assured, that the Proprietors of the British Fishery, already employ 20,000 People.

Feb. 27. They write from Franckfort, that the French continue buying up great Quantities of Corn in the Lower Palatinate, and in the Dutchy of Wirtemberg, which they lay up in divers new Magazines erected in Alsace.

The Report continues to gain Ground, that ten Ships of the Line will speedily be fitted out.——Whether this is true or not, it has had such an Effect, that the Seamen have deserted some of the Ships in the River.

The Prussian Ship for India, now in the Downes, had on board a great Number of British Sailors, who have been taken out of her by the Men of Wars Boats.

Feb. 29. The East India Company have taken into their Service 500 Swiss Soldiers.

March 3. We learn from Italy, that the Court of Versailles has at last consented to the Modification proposed by the State of Genoa, in respect to the Regulations that are to be published in Corsica, with which the People of that Island are excessively offended, insomuch, that they look upon French Troops as Goalers, whom but a little Time ago they considered as their Deliverers.

March 11. We hear now that both Houses of Parliament will rise the Week before Easter.

And that his Majesty will set out for his German Dominions the Week following.

March 12. Tuesday se'nnight died at Edinburgh, Mr. Thomas Erskine, Brewer, an eminent Preacher among the People called Quakers.

March 17. We can assure the Publick, that Miss Blandy, condemn'd for poisoning her Father, has desired not to be executed by a Man, but a Woman; and that she promised a Woman five Guineas and her Cloaths for doing the Job.

March 20. Next Sunday se'nnight the Right Hon. the Lord Anson will set out for Harwich, to take the Command of the Squadron which is to convoy the King to Holland; his Majesty intending to set out on Easter Tuesday.

March 21. We hear that the Herring-Fishery Society (besides their twenty Busses which will be fishing off Shetland next June) have contracted for thirty new Ones, and will contract for ten or fifteen more; so that their whole Number, in 1753, will consist of Sixty, or more; which, with those of the Chambers, may make a Fleet of about fourscore Sail. A noble Provision for Multitudes of Poor, and a most excellent Nursery for Seamen.

ANNAPOLIS,

April 16. We have an Account of a very melancholy Accident, which happened on the 4th Instant in Potowmack, on the Virginia Side. A Number of People who had been on board a Ship, went, with the Captain, Mate, and two Sailors, in the Long-Boat, to see a Seine Hauling; but a sudden Squall of Wind happening, and the Halliards being all fast, the Long Boat overset, by which Means six Persons were drowned; one of them a Son to Col. Blackburn, a Man and his Wife (big with Child) of Quantico, one more Woman and two others, whose Names we have not yet learn'd. After the overletting the Boat, the Husband had got on her Bottom, but seeing his Wife perishing, left the Boat in order to save her, but to no Purpose, for he sunk down with her, and they perish'd in each other's Arms.

On Tuesday Night last, two Convict Servant Men, in Dorchester County, made an Attempt to murder their Master and Mistress; but they defended themselves so well, that they had like to have overpowered the Servants, when a Convict Servant Woman came in to their Assistance, which obliged the Mistress to run up Stairs, and getting out at a Dormant Window, she retired into a Swamp near the House, where they could not find her: They beat their Master cruelly, and left him for dead, then plundered the House of Cloaths, and eleven Pounds in Money, and made off; but the Man is like to recover.

April 23. A few Days ago, a Dwelling House near Patapsco, and another on Kent Island, were both burnt to the Ground, while the People were absent from home; and scarce any Thing was saved out of either of them. [Both the Houses had wooden Chimneys; and we rather may wonder that more Accidents of that Kind do not happen, than that so many do]

We hear from Baltimore County, that two Men who got hurt at the late Election there, are since dead of their Wounds.

Saturday last, some Gentlemen very resolutely, or rather imprudently, attempting to cross the Bay in one of the Kent Island Ferry Boats, from hence for that Island, just as a Gust was coming on, very narrowly escaped being all lost; the Boat being driven down the Bay as low as Oxford.

On Tuesday se'nnight the Provincial Court met here, and the Grand Jury were discharged on Saturday, having found Bills against Five Persons for Horse stealing, two of which were found Guilty, viz. William Grimes and Thomas Hornbrook: The other three, viz. Thomas Stanley, James Dilland, and Terence Swinney, were acquitted; but ordered to give good Securities, in large Sums, for their good Behaviour; or to leave the Province in twenty Days. [Whether they design to travel towards the North or South is not known.]

Ebenezer Alexander of Talbot County, was tried for killing John Campbell in a Fight last October Meeting. It appeared from the Evidence, that Alexander gave Campbell no other Affront than by endeavouring to make Peace between two Men who Campbell wanted to fight; this so enraged him, that he insisted on fighting Alexander, who prudently endeavoured to avoid him; but the other pursuing him from Place to Place with a great deal of ill Language, and Alexander finding it impossible to get rid of him without Blows, at length engaged him; when, after a short Contest, they parted, and Campbell died about a Quarter of an Hour after. The Jury acquitted him in less than a Minute.

Last Thursday, while two Men were at the Bar for Horse-stealing, one John Broughton, at the Court-House Door, pick'd a Lad's Pocket of his Pocket-Book, wherein he had just before seen him put about fourteen Shillings; but being immediately detected, he was on Saturday tried for the same, and found Guilty.

On Monday one James Powell, from Somerset County, was tried for a Burglary, and stealing a large Quantity of Goods; which being fully proved, the Jury soon brought him in Guilty.

Last Night arrived here, the Thames Frigate, Capt. James Dobbins, in seven Weeks from London; who has brought in 130 of his Majesty's Passengers, for the better Peopling his American Plantations.

NEW-YORK, May 4.

By a Vessel arriv'd at Marblehead, from London, we have private Letters giving Advice of the safe Arrival of the Captains Deane and Corne, in London, from this Port.

Capt. M'Dowal from S. Carolina, informs us, that in his Passage from Jamaica to that Place, he was brought to in the Windward Passage, off of Cape-Nicholau, by three Spanish Guarda Costas, who ordered him to follow them into the Mould, the Sea running very high, they could not conveniently put any Men on board of him, and the Night coming on, he gave them the Slip and got away.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.

By Capt. Mesnard there is Advice, that the Triton was to sail from London for this Place, a few Days after him.

Saturday last John Webster was executed here pursuant to his Sentence: He made no Confession till he was under the Gallows, when he own'd to a Gentleman there, that the Teapot for which he was condemned was Mr. Clemm's, and that he took it out of his House. Being asked, if he committed the Robbery at Saunders's Store? Replied, That the same Person that did that also (meaning Mr. Clemm's) did the other. And being also asked, if he knew any Thing of the Murder of Wilson? Answered, that he did not; and thank'd GOD, he had never shed the Blood of Man or Woman in his Life. And as to any other Crimes he had committed, he said, as no Person could suffer by his not revealing them, it was needless to repeat them.

Monday last the Contributors to the Pennsylvania Hospital met at the Court-house, and chose twelve Managers, and a Treasurer, to continue till the Election in May next, viz. Mahlon Kirkbride, Joshua Crosby, Hugh Roberts, Israel Pemberton, jun. John Reynell, Benjamin Franklin, Joseph Morris, William Griffitts, Isaac Norris, Samuel Rhodes, Samuel Hazard, John Reynell, and Thomas Lawrence, jun. Just imported from London, and to be sold cheap, by

PETER SONMANS,

At his house in Front-street, near the Sign of the Platter,

A Large parcel of drugs, chymical and galenical medicines: Also a healthy young Negroe wench, fit for town or country, she has had the measles and small-pox. ¶

MR. DOVE, English Professor at the Academy, finding his former house too little for the number of his boarders, has taken Rock-hall, which is situated in a wholsome air very near the Academy, and most commodiously adapted for the reception of young gentlemen at board, washing and lodging. The great advantages that children will receive from their living with a master, may easily appear from this consideration; That as they will be always under his inspection, he will have a better opportunity of discovering their different inclinations and humours, of forming their manners, and correcting their language and writing. Besides which, care will be taken, to instruct them morning, noon and night, in several useful books, by way of recreation, which are not taught in the public school.

N. B. Said Dove, if desired, will at leisure hours instruct any of his boarders in the Greek, Latin, or French Grammar, without any additional expence to their parents or friends.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of John Owen, late of Chester, deceased, either by bill, bond, book-debt, or on the sheriff-docket, are desired to make speedy payment, to prevent trouble and charges; and those that have any demands against said estate, are desired to bring in their accounts, that they may be adjusted, by George Owen, of Philadelphia, and James Rhoads, of Marple township, Chester county, executors.

To be sold by said executors, between 40 and 50 acres of choice good land, within two miles of Chester, lying on Edgmont road, half a mile from Chester-creek landing, where flats frequent, 15 or 20 acres of which is cleared, with a young orchard, the rest well timbered. Tbctf.

Likewise to be sold by said Owen, a likely young Negroe woman; fit for town or country business.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Saturday laſt the Tryton, Capt. Shirley, arrived here from London, by whom we have the following Advices.

MADRID, January 18.

THREE Men of War are ſpeedily expected in our Ports, which have been built at Genoa, for the Service of his Majeſty.

Paris, Feb. 4. There is a Talk of ſending two Fleets to Sea next Summer, in order to exerciſe the Navy of this Kingdom, which is in a Manner rebuilt ſince the late War. We have receiv'd Advice, that the Body of Troops which was ſent upon the Coaſt of Guiney, arriv'd there very ſafe.

They write from Breſt, that in a few Days they ſhould launch ſeveral new Men of War; and aſſure us, that they are immediately to be equipp'd: That they have juſt put two new Ships of the Line, and three Frigates, on the Stocks, and that they are going to build three new Baſons in that Harbour.

Gibraltar, Jan. 14. The Officers and Sailors of the Dutch Frigate and Merchantman, lately caſt away on the Coaſt of Barbary, to the Number of 134, were conducted into Tetuan, in a Sort of Triumph by an infinite Number of People, who accompanied them to the Priſon, which was a deep and dark Dungeon in the Tower Ditch, into which they went down by a Ladder. The Capt. was obliged to remain on Horſeback, amidſt the Shouting of the Populace, till all his People were gone down into this dreadful Priſon, where they likewiſe forced him to go. After he had been there ſome Hours, the Engliſh Conſul brought the Governor's Order for him and his Officers to be conducted to a Priſon ſomething leſs irkſome than the Dungeon, where the under Officers and Sailors ſtill continue, and are obliged in the Day time to work at the Fortifications. The Chriſtians eſtabliſhed at Tetuan charitably ſupply the Priſoners with Proviſions, or they would periſh with Hunger.

Hague, Feb. 28. They write from the Frontiers of Brabant, that the French are purſuing ſuch Meaſures in thoſe Parts, as alarm the Pacifick, great Diligence being uſed in filling up the Vacancies which ſome Months have made in the Magazines of Givet, Philipeville, and other Places upon the Meuſe; and if the Advice of the Publick is to be at all credited, a very numerous Body of Troops will immediately come and occupy thoſe Quarters. We are inform'd, on the other Hand, that the King of Pruſſia is cauſing a conſiderable Reinforcement of Troops to march into Sileſia. Nevertheleſs, the Spirit of Peace, as moſt of the Letters from France adviſe, ſtill conſtantly prevails among the Chiefs of the Cabinet of Verſailles. There is nothing, they tell us from thence, ſo likely to raiſe freſh Diſturbances in Europe, as the approaching Election of the King of the Romans, which Point the Allies of the Houſe of Auſtria have reſolv'd to puſh to the utmoſt, and at all Adventures. France will, it is ſaid, in this Caſe, ſcarcely fail of ſupporting, according to her Engagements, the Oppoſition that probably will be brought againſt it, for private Ends, by Pruſſia; and this gives a Proſpect of War in all its Forms. People ought nevertheleſs, ſtill to hope, ſays the Concluſion of a private Letter, that the Spirit of Peace, which inconteſtably animates all the European Powers in general, will prevail on this Occaſion, and that ſome Expedient will be found out which will ſtill preſerve the publick Tranquility: And as to what is above ſaid, in reſpect to the Diligence made Uſe of in filling the Magazines of the Frontier Places of the Low Countries, there is nothing more done than ſupplying them with Corn, ſufficient to prevent a Scarcity.

Hague, March 3. Upon the Choice of the Burgomaſters of Amſterdam, which is not made by the Stadtholder, but by the People, there has happened ſomething which promiſes a Revolution of publick Affairs. The Court Party has brought in a Son of one of the old depoſed Magiſtrates, M. Gerit Hooſt, a very worthy Patriot, which makes all, who wiſh well to the Republick, hope that the Court will, by Degrees, accommodate itſelf with the diſgraced Families, who have a ſtrong Party, and who have hitherto form'd the Faction, which oppoſes all the juſt and wiſe Projects of the Miniſtry. By this expedient, which is the only one that can be put in Practice, the Court will gradually get the better of the Anti-Stadtholderian Faction; for one can ſcarcely ſuppoſe that her Royal Highneſs the Governante will take in any but ſuch as ſhe is aſſured have changed their Syſtem; a great Point will be gained in breaking the String of Beads: After one of this Party is got again into Play, others will be inſtigated by Envy and Jealouſy in ſeeing their Equal mounted into the Magiſterial Chair, and will ſcarcely fail facing about in order likewiſe to get into Power.

Her Royal Highneſs the Governante is not yet come to reſide here. The Affair of the Free Port and Tranſit, has made a conſiderable Progreſs in the Aſſembly of the States of Holland; but the People are not altogether content with their Noble and Grand Mightineſſes, for continuing the Taxes upon the ſame Footing as before the Peace.

Venice, March 8. His Serenity the Doge, Signior Pietro Grimani, died the 6th inſtant, of an Inflammation in his Head and Breaſt, in the 75th Year of his Age. He filled this high Office eleven Years with great Honour, and is univerſally lamented for his many great and amiable Qualities. His Death is not yet made publick, but will be declared on Saturday, and his Body is then to be expoſed for three Days before the Funeral, in one of the Halls of the Palace; immediately after that Ceremony, the Councils will continually aſſemble, to go thro' the many Ballotations that precede the Choice of the Forty-one Electors, ſo that the Election will be over by the End of the next Week; and it is the univerſal Opinion, that Signior Franceſco Loredan will be choſen without Oppoſition.

Genoa, Feb. 26. Letters from Leghorn adviſe, that a Ship, carrying Tuſcan Colours, and bound for Trieſte, having put into Meſſina, was ſtopt there by Order of the Government. The Occaſion of which, it is pretended, is, becauſe the Captain of her is a Native of Naples, and conſequently a Subject of his Sicilian Majeſty. Theſe Letters however add, that this Captain dwells at Trieſte; that his Father, who was heretofore a Marine Officer in the Service of the Houſe of Auſtria, was employed in the late War with Spain, and did great Services, from whence it is inferr'd, that the Son of this Officer ſhould be looked upon as a Subject of their Imperial Majeſties. We are the more impatient to ſee how the Court of Vienna will take this Affair, as all the Effects of the Ship, which belong'd to ſeveral Merchants of Vienna, have been ſequeſter'd.

Lyons, March 5. An Affair has lately broke out here which is very remarkable. An eminent Trader of this City, who had acquired an eaſy Fortune, had a Couple of handſome Daughters, whom he married to his Liking, and divided between them all he had, upon an Agreement that he ſhould paſs the Winter with the one, and the Summer with the other. Before the End of the firſt Year, he found ſufficient Grounds to conclude, that he was not a very acceptable Gueſt to either; of which, however, he took no Notice, but hired a handſome Lodging, in which he reſided for a few Weeks. He then applied himſelf to a Friend, and told him the Truth of the Matter, deſired him to give him two hundred Livres, and to lend him fifty thouſand in ready Money for a few Hours. His Friend very readily complied with his Requeſt. The next Day the old Man made a grand Entertainment, to which his Daughters, and their Huſbands, were invited. Juſt as the Dinner was over, his Friend came in a great Hurry, told him of an unexpected Demand upon him, and deſired to know if he could lend him fifty thouſand Livres. The old Man told him, without any Emotion, that twice as much was at his Service if he had wanted it; and going into the next Room brought him the Money. After this he was not ſuffered to ſtay any longer in his Lodging; his Daughters were jealous if he remained but a Day more at one Houſe than the other; and after three or four Years ſpent in this Manner, he died laſt Month; when upon examining his Cabinet, inſtead of Riches, there was found a Note, in which were theſe Words, He who has ſuffered by his Virtue, has a Right to avail himſelf of the Vices of thoſe by whom he ſuffered; and a Father ought never to be ſo fond of his Children, as to forget what is due to himſelf.

Madrid, March 7. It is ſaid, that his Majeſty has made an Augmentation of 1,500,000 to the Revenues of the Order of Malta, to enable it to act with the greater Vigour againſt the Barbary Pirates.

It is aſſured that the Treaty of Commerce which is negotiating between this Kingdom, and the Grand Dutchy of Tuſcany, is in great Forwardneſs. The Court having been informed that a contraband Trade is carried on at ſeveral Places upon the Southern Coaſt of Spain, by which Means ſeveral foreign Commodities are introduced into this Kingdom, without paying the Proper Duties, Orders have been ſent to the Commandant of the Marine at Cadiz, to ſend out immediately from that Port, three Frigates of twenty Guns each, to watch all the Ships that come near the Coaſt, examine the Goods on board, and ſink ſuch as refuſe to be viſited.

Vienna, March 11. It is certain that there are great Affairs upon the Carpet, as well in Germany, as at the Court of Spain. It is pretended that there is not only a Treaty of Neutrality and mutual Guaranty of the reſpective Powers in Italy upon the Carpet, but a particular and more ſtrict Union is principally in Agitation, and likely to be effected between their Imperial and Catholick Majeſties. M. Migazzi, who is gone to Madrid, is, as we are aſſured, provided with neceſſary Inſtructions to bring that Affair to Perfection.

Hanover, March 24. The Commiſſion which Lord Hyndford is gone to execute at the Court of Vienna, is ſaid to be of the laſt Importance, and relates particularly to the Affairs of the Empire. His Lordſhip is expected back in a few Weeks, to make a Report to his Majeſty of the Succeſs of his Negotiation.

Berlin, March 25. The King, who neglects nothing that may contribute to promote the Commerce of his Subjects, has ordered that two Packet-Boats ſhall be conſtantly employed, as well to carry Paſſengers as Merchandize, between Embden and London.

Duſſeldorp, March 26. As the Report continues, that the French intend to have a Camp upon the Moſelle, and that a Commiſſary is already arrived in this Country to buy up Proviſions for thoſe Troops, it is aſſured that the Empreſs Queen will form a Camp of 18000 Men in the Territory of Luxembourg, for which ſeveral Regiments will be ordered from Bohemia.

Paris, March 24. We learn from Nantz, that the Auguſta Eaſt Indiaman is lately arrived there from Pondicherry very richly laden. This Ship brings Advice, that Mr. Dupleix, Governor of Pondicherry, continued in ſtrict Union with Mouzaferſingue, Nabob of Golconda, and that they were taking Meaſures, in Concert with each other, to render abortive the Deſigns of the Mogul, in caſe he ſhould attack them. We have Advice by the ſame Channel, that the Differences between the French and Engliſh concerning the Limits of their reſpective Factories, were likely to be renewed, and that Mr. Dupleix, had cauſed it to be ſignified to the Governor of Fort St. George, that he deſir'd nothing ſo much as to preſerve a good Underſtanding, and would do every thing on his Part to contribute to it; but that if contrary to all expectation, any Attempt ſhould be made to encroach upon the Territories under his Government, he would not only not ſuffer it, but ſhould think himſelf obliged to oppoſe it openly.

Naples, March 2. A Squadron conſiſting of one Ship of the Line of Battle, one Frigate, four Gallies, and four Xebeques, will ſet ſail from this Port the 15th Inſtant, to cruize upon the Barbary Corſairs. The Merchants of this City are arming, at their own Expence, two Tartars and two Galliots, for the ſame Service.

The Eruption of Mount Veſuvius ſtill continues, but the bituminous Matter does not flow from it ſo rapidly, nor ſo plentifully, as it did ſome Time ago.

Paris, April 1. The Dauphineſs appeared in publick the 29th of laſt Month, for the firſt Time ſince her Miſcarriage.

LONDON,

January 24. We are inform'd by a Correſpondent in France, that Murderers in that Country for the future are to be hang'd up in Chains bare headed for two Days, and allow'd only Bread and Water; on the third Day, after the Executioner has chopt off the Hand with which the Murder was committed, they are to receive ceive the Coup de Grace, to be hang'd by the Neck till dead, and their Bodies to remain in Chains, and whoever even attempts to cut them down, are to be confin'd to the Gallies for Life.

Jan. 31. A Perſon having lately made ſome Propoſals to the Lords of the Admiralty for making Sea Water freſh and good, at a ſmall Expence, ſo as to be uſeful on board of Ships, a Quantity of the Water was on Monday laſt, by their Lordſhips Deſire, ſent to the College of Phyſicians, who were of Opinion, that the ſaid Water was good and wholſome, and might be of great Uſe to the Publick. Sixteen Gallons of Sea Water will, with about half a Buſhel of Coals, produce thirteen Gallons of freſh Water.

An Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated January 28.

The Duke of Burgundy continues as well as Heart can wiſh: The Phyſicians ſay, he is ſo perfectly formed, and withal ſo healthy, that unleſs ſome Accident happens to him, he bids fair for long Life. This Prince is guarded with all the Care imaginable, eſpecially ſince the Incident of the Packet which was thrown into his Cradle, and no Body is ſince admitted to come near his Perſon, but People who are abſolutely neceſſary to be about him.

The Miniſters of this Court have many Compliments paid them, and are highly commended, for bringing the Finances into ſo good a Condition as they are in at preſent, being, it is ſaid, in a better State than they have been in for many Years, notwithſtanding the extraordinary Charges which the Court has been, and ſtill is at, the Expences of the King alone amounting to many Millions. The greateſt Part of the Debts which were contracted during the late War, have been paid off, the former Debts have been leſſened, and according to the Project which is upon the Carpet, the reſt will inſenſibly be paid off by Means of the Sinking Fund; and all this will be done without Prejudice to the Funds eſtabliſhed for defraying the Expences of the building Ships, and Support of Sailors. It is true, that almoſt the ſame Taxes continue to be levied as were in the Height of the late War; but if publick Report is to be credited, ſome which are moſt burthenſome to the People will be ſuppreſſed.

Feb. 1. A Gentlewoman and her Daughters, who live in Covent-Garden, coming from Greenwich, on Thurſday Night, were attack'd by two Highwaymen, one of whom ſtopt the Coach, and the other came to the Door to demand their Money; upon which the Gentlewoman preſenting a Piſtol, told him ſhe was prepared for him, and ordered the Coachman to drive on, which he did accordingly, and the Highwaymen put Spurs to their Horſes and rode off full Speed towards London, without their Booty.

Feb. 7. Letters from Italy mention a very extraordinary Inſtance of unnatural Cruelty committed lately at Villafranca. A young Man of good Family made his Addreſſes to a young Woman of conſiderable Fortune, and, without Difficulty, prevail'd upon his Father to make over his Eſtate to him, in order to facilitate the Marriage. After it was concluded, he forbad the old Gentleman his Houſe, and refuſed him any kind of Aſſiſtance. His Wife, however, reliev'd her Father-in-law as far as it was in her Power; which coming to the Huſband's Knowldge, he pretended to go out of Town, but return'd and caught his Father at Dinner; who retiring quickly into another Room, this furious Monſter drew a Piſtol, and ſhot his Wife through the Head; for which he is to be broke alive upon the Wheel.

Feb. 11. Yeſterday Morning, upwards of 100 Tranſports from Newgate, were ſhipped for his Majeſty's American Colonies.

Feb. 14. We hear it is propoſed, for the more exemplary puniſhing of Murderers, that they ſhall be executed ſoon after Conviction, and their Bodies ſent to Surgeons-Hall to be anatomiz'd.

Feb. 19. It is ſaid, that the Government has contracted for a very large Wood in the Kingdom of Ireland, conſiſting chiefly of fine large Oak Trees, to be uſed in the Navy.

March 13. An authentick Account has been received from Perſia, by the Way of Peterſburgh, importing, that Shah Doub has actually quitted Iſpahan, and is retired to Erivan, carrying with him his own and the Remains of his Predeceſſors Treaſures; particularly the Imperial Throne, which Shah Nadir took from the Mogul, and which is ſolid Gold.

March 26. This Day his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers, and gave the royal Aſſent to Ninety-five publick and private Bills; amongſt which one for the Regulation of the Commencement of the Year, and correcting the Kalendar; and another for putting an End to Doubts and Queſtions relating to the Atteſtation of Wills in the Colonies of America.

An Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated March 2.

"The Memorial preſented by the Miniſter of the Electors Palatine and of Cologn, in the Name of the former, to their High Mightineſſes, and ſeconded by another from the Court of Berlin, makes the Diſpoſition of theſe two Princes, in reſpect to the Republick, ſufficiently known. But the States General do not ſeem much to regard their Menaces, the Support they are ſure of having from their Allies, who are not the moſt favourably diſpoſed towards the King of Pruſſia and the Elector Palatine, makes them not fearful of drawing upon them the Anger of theſe Princes, by giving them ſo ſmart an Anſwer as they have done to ſuch Memorial; whatever may happen on this Occaſion, it is remarked by thoſe who obſerve Things minutely, that ſomething of Importance is in Agitation amongſt the Powers of the Germanick Body in Concert with ſome foreign Powers; and they pretend to foreſee that there will ſhortly break out, and perhaps where it is leaſt thought of, a Flame which will probably ſet all Europe on Fire. This is conjectur'd by the Vigour with which the Palatine Court, and ſome other Princes, augment their Troops, and take every Meaſure with ſo much Warmth to have formidable Forces on Foot.

They write from Bonn, that there was likely to be ſome freſh Alteration in the Miniſtry of that Court, and particularly in reſpect to the Baron d'Aſſebourg, Grand Maſter of his Serene Electoral Highneſs's Houſhold, towards whom it is pretended, that the good Graces of the Elector are conſiderably abated; tho' this is founded merely upon Report, yet it is certain, that the Miniſters, as well foreign as thoſe of that Court, who are deſirous that his Serene Electoral Highneſs ſhould enter into the Sentiments of their Imperial and Britannick Majeſties, in regard to the Election of a King of the Romans, in Favour of the Archduke Joſeph, labour with all their Might, to ſupplant M. d'Aſſebourg; and it is publickly notorious that every Thing depends upon this Event."

An Extract of a private Letter from Paris, March 10.

"The Deaths of the Duke of Orleans, that Pattern of Piety, and of Madam Henrietta, that Model of a perfect and accompliſhed Princeſs, have given every Body here an inexpreſſible Affliction. The former is exceedingly regretted by the Pariſians, being the principal Supporter of their Intereſt; and the latter by the Court, where ſhe made herſelf greatly admired by her extraordinary Gentleneſs and Affability. Without attempting at Panegyricks, the Death of theſe two great Perſonages, has for a Time ſuſpended the Courſe of political Affairs: If any thing important is yet tranſacting, it is at the Houſes of the Miniſters; for the King is ſo afflicted, as to deſerve Compaſſion, and can do nothing but indulge the Grief which the Loſs of his beſt-beloved Daughter cauſes.

The Affairs of the Clergy were, at the Time of Madame's Death, in a ſort of Criſis, they had not then abſolutely declared what they would do; in the mean Time it is believed that they will be conſtrained to do it ſoon: The King perſiſts in being obeyed, and the Parliament, who have a ſecret Reſentment againſt that venerable Body, on Occaſion of the Government of the General Hoſpital, which has given them ſo much Perplexity, will not fail of doing all in their Power to induce his Majeſty to proceed rigorouſly againſt the Authors of their late Diſgrace.

Our Commerce is in ſuch a Situation, that ſomething good and ſomething bad may be ſaid about it. In the Indies our Eſtabliſhments flouriſh, and our Colonies are every Day becoming more powerful than other. In France Things do not go on ſo ſwimmingly: At Marſeilles, Bourdeaux, Lyons, &c. all the Merchants complain of the Scarcity of Money, and the little Demand for their Commodities; inſomuch that many become Bankrupts.

Our laſt Letters from Madrid adviſe, that the Court of Spain will probably, in a ſhort Time, be equally afflicted with that of France, the Queen being in a very ill State of Health. If her Death ſhould happen, what new Revolutions might not be expected? eſpecially if Count Migazzi ſhould ſucceed in negociating a Marriage between his Catholick Majeſty and the eldeſt Archdutcheſs, wherein it is certain, he would be aſſiſted by the Miniſtry and the Nation, who would not willingly ſee a Princeſs of France upon the Throne of Spain, his Catholick Majeſty having gained the Affections of his Subjects, by refuſing to follow the Maxims of France, and by having nothing ſo much in View as the promoting the Intereſt of his own Nation."

March 27. We hear that her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, who was appointed laſt Year by Act of Parliament Regent of theſe Kingdoms, on the Demiſe of his Majeſty, will be declared Regent during the Abſence of the King at Hanover.—Happy are the People that are in ſuch a Caſe!

We hear that the whole Secret Hiſtory of the Fur Trade, as well in America as in Europe, with the ſeveral Methods practiſed by our artificial Neighbours to purchaſe that Commodity, not only for themſelves, but for us, with our Manufactures Duty free, will be clearly explained, and a Multitude of other commercial Fineſſes brought to Light; which may poſſibly convince all who are open to Conviction, that the Navigation, Trade, and Proſperity of Great-Britain, muſt, in a great Meaſure, depend on the Adminiſtration of Affairs in the Britiſh Colonies, and a due Attention to the ſalutary Laws made for promoting a good Correſpondence between thoſe Settlements and their Mother Country.

Dublin, Feb. 29. Lately died in the Barony of Iveragh, and County of Kerry, Daniel Bull M'Carthy, Eſq; of a very antient Family, in the 112th Year of his Age. He buried four Wives; his fifth Wife now a Widow, he married when he was Eighty-four, and ſhe but Fourteen, by whom he had about twenty Children, ſhe bearing a Child every Year. He was always a very healthy Man; no Cold did ever affect him; he could not bear the Warmth of a Shirt at Night, but put it under his Pillow, for theſe ſeventy Years paſt. When in Company he drank plentifully of Rum and Brandy, which he call'd the Naked Truth; and if in Compliance with other Gentlemen, he drank Claret or Punch, he always drank an equal Glaſs of Rum or Brandy, to qualify thoſe Liquors; this he call'd a Wedge. No Man remembers to have ſeen him ſpit. His Cuſtom was to walk eight or ten Miles in a Winter's Morning, over Mountains, with Greyhounds and Finders, and ſeldom failed to bring home a Brace of Hares. He was an honeſt Gentleman, and inherited the ſocial Virtues of the antient Mileſians.

BOSTON, May 18.

We hear the Small-Pox is broke out in the Town of Concord, near the Meeting-houſe, which will very much incommode the Members of the General Court, at the approaching Election. We have alſo Advice, that the ſame fatal Diſtemper is in many other Country Towns.

Extract of a Letter from Newport, dated April 6.

"This ſerves to acquaint you, that I arrived Yeſterday from Jamaica.---As to News at Jamaica, it was told me by the Capt. of a Ship, that he ſaw an Advertiſement up in Publick at Kingſton, inviting all Gentlemen who had been Sufferers by the Spaniards, to repair immediately on board his Majeſty's Ship Glouceſter (of 50 Guns) which was then fitting out with all Expedition, and ſuppoſed to be going to St. Domingo, to demand Satisfaction for the many Veſſels taken and carried there, and on Refuſal, to make Reprizals." [Engliſh Reſolution revived!]

NEW-YORK, May 25.

Laſt Saturday Evening departed this Life, Mr. WILLIAM BRADFORD, Printer, of this City, in the 94th Year of his Age: He came into America upwards of 70 Years ago, and landed at the Place where Philadelphia now ſtands, before that City was laid out, or a Houſe built there: He was Printer to this Government upwards of 50 Years; and was a Man of great Sobriety and Induſtry; ---a real Friend to the Poor and Needy; and affable to all: His Temperance was exceedingly conſpicuous, and he was almoſt a Stranger to Sickneſs all his Life: He had been off Buſineſs for ſeveral Years paſt, and being quite worn out with old Age and Labour, his Lamp of Life went out for want of Oil. His Remains are to be interr'd this Evening.

Laſt Thurſday Capt. Beauchar, in a Sloop from Jamaica to Rhode Iſland, put into Elizabeth-Town, in Diſtreſs; ſhe had been 60 Days out, 30 whereof was on our Coaſt, where all her Sails were beat to Pieces: She is ſince come up here.

Capt. Deane, from London, informs us, that his Majeſty was to ſet out for Hanover before he ſail'd; alſo that Capt. Corne was to ſail for this Port in about ten Days after him.

Capt. Merſeyer, from South-Carolina, informs us, that a Ship of about 300 Tons, commanded by Capt. Wadham, full laden, was juſt on Sailing from Charles-Town, for London, took Fire by Accident, on the 5th of this Inſtant, and both Veſſel and Cargo entirely deſtroy'd.

CHRISTOPHER MARSHALL,
At the Golden-Ball, in Cheſtnut-ſtreet,
Dr. BENJAMIN GODFREY's General Cordial.

THAT by many years experience, and the conſtant ſucceſs that has attended the taking of my cordial drops in the ſeveral diſtempers of the cholick, griping of the guts, all ſorts of fluxes and looſeneſs, hickup, pleuriſy, rheumatiſm, catarhs or defluxions of humours upon the lungs, fevers, ſmall-pox, meaſles, and in ſeveral diſorders incident to children; it effects ſo much beyond the force of other medicines as is ſcarce credible. And thereby the great reputation theſe ſo much famed cordial drops have ſo univerſally gained, have induced many mean and mercenary pretenders to counterfeit them, by imitating my bottles and bills of directions as near as they can or dare to do, and thereby impoſing upon the publick their dangerous compoſitions for the true and genuine ſort. I do therefore think myſelf obliged, in gratitude for the univerſal good reception my cordial drops have ſo long met with, and for the ſafety of thoſe who may have occaſion to uſe them, to give the publick this neceſſary caution, which I deſire may be obſerved. That the bottle they buy have not only my chriſtian name on the top of the bottle, but that my name at large be in each printed bill of directions, without which they may be aſſured it is a notorious counterfeit, and may be productive of the worſt conſequences.

CERTIFICATES
Of ſeveral perſons cured of the Bloody Flux, by Dr. Benjamin Godfrey's General Cordial, of Biſhopſgate-ſtreet, London.

London. THOMAS PATY, of Haydon Court, in Swallow-ſtreet, in the pariſh of St. James, Weſtminſter, labourer, maketh oath, That he this deponent being afflicted for ſeveral days and nights with the Bloody Flux, and a continual griping, in a moſt violent manner, and being adviſed to make uſe of Dr. Benjamin Godfrey's General Cordial, ſold at his ware-houſe, the corner of Artillery Lane, in Biſhopſgate-ſtreet, London, this deponent ſaith, that by taking one of his Six-penny bottles of his ſaid cordial, at twice, he this deponent was perfectly cured, and has not been troubled with the ſame ſince: And deſires the ſame may be made publick, for the benefit of ſuch perſons as labour under the ſame diſorder.
THO. PATY.

ROB. LADBROKE, Mayor.

London. I JAMES GORICK, of Auſtin-ſtreet, in the Pariſh of St. Matthew, Bethnal Green, Weaver, do make oath, That I was lately afflicted with the Bloody Flux for ſome weeks, by which diſorder I was reduced to a very low and weak condition; and being adviſed by my friends to make uſe of Dr. Benjamin Godfrey's General Cordial, ſold at his ware-houſe, in Biſhopſgate-ſtreet, London, as a certain remedy, I did apply for, and did take, one of his Six-penny bottles of Cordial at twice, and I was thereby perfectly cured, and I have not been ſince afflicted with the like diſorder. And this I deſire may be made publick, for the good of all perſons labouring under ſuch diſorders.
JAMES GORICK.
Sworn at Grocers Hall, the 1ſt Day of November, 1748, before me
ROB. LADBROKE.

WE whoſe names are here under-written, poor priſoners in Whitechapel goal, lately like to loſe our lives by the Bloody Flux, do, for the good of mankind, and in gratitude to Dr. Benjamin Godfrey, of Biſhopſgate-ſtreet, London, for his kind preſent of two dozen bottles of his General Cordial, declare, that by the help of his Cordial only, we were perfectly cured of the Bloody Flux. Iſaac Huck, James Wilſon, John Aldridge, William Owens. Witneſs, this 18th day of Feb. 1748, Cath. Jackman, ſiſter to the keeper.

WE the under-written poor priſoners in Whitechapel priſon, having been informed that ſome of the poor priſoners had been lately cured of the Bloody Flux, by the help of Dr. Benjamin Godfrey's General Cordial, and we being afflicted with that diſorder, ſince we have been brought in here, did apply to Dr. Benjamin Godfrey, in Biſhopſgate-ſtreet, London, for relief, and he very kindly aſſiſted us with a free gift of ſeveral Bottles of his General Cordial, by means whereof we are quite rid of the Bloody Flux. Richard Rowland, James Philips, Henry Parks, James Gilchriſt, Thomas Ruſſell, Thomas Webber, Thomas Hoſkins, John Purdey, Nathaniel Whitaker.
